

Bryan Goff

Bryan Goff, Robert T. Braunagel Professor of Trumpet, retired from Florida State University in May, 2009, having taught on the College of Music faculty since 1974. He served as Coordinator of the Winds and Percussion division for 20 years.

He has appeared as a soloist and clinician throughout the U.S. and Europe, both on modern trumpet and baroque trumpet. Professor Goff has played Principal Trumpet in the Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra, the FSU Chamber Orchestra, and the Florida State Brass Quintet. He served for 16 years as the Treasurer of the International Trumpet Guild and is a Past-president of the National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors. In his retirement he continues to perform as a soloist and with the Tallahassee Symphony and other regional orchestras.

*From:
International Trumpet Guild
Lifetime Achievement members*